Sag's Ned (2010, video 5.30min) I Cellulite Rose, artist@celluliterose.com, www.celluliterose.com
Sag's Ned is a video work that references its own making. Downloaded youtube clips of fan videos play alongside the artist's own fan-video-style rendition of a pop song, as it is posted and streamed from Facebook. The fans are clearly from various ethnicities but are emotionally connected through the heartfelt singing of the same song.

Protocall (2011, live performance) I Cellulite Rose & Louise Sartor I Room 211a, 2.OG, Schillerplatz
Protocall is an improvised live performance within the Skype video calling interface. Rose and Sartor interact in subtle harmonic gestures, elaborately vying for attention like a DJ battle and the program starts jamming.

Blues (video 4 min) I Heavy thinking (video 1 min) I Adam (video, 10 min, in Zusammenarbeit mit Raphael Michon) I
Fanni Futterknecht, www.fannifutterknecht.com
Durch Manipulation des Mediums Video in Hinblick auf Zeit und Bewegung wird ein Bezug zur Malerei hergestellt. Die „ Illusion" Video und deren substanzlose Form der Projektion wird der Beständigkeit eines Gemäldes gegenübergestellt.
